Village Nurseries Showcases New and Superior Plants for Landscape Contractors at CLCA Landscape Industry Show

LOS ANGELES--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Village Nurseries, a specialty wholesale grower for landscape professionals and independent garden centers, will showcase its proprietary and non-proprietary plants in Booth #1341 at the Landscape Industry Show, sponsored by the California Landscape Contractors Association (CLCA) and opening here today at the Los Angeles Convention Center.

As a specialty grower, Village Nurseries offers the variety, the quality and the depth of product demanded by landscape professionals for both residential and commercial uses. The company has forged an alliance with Monrovia Nursery to grow and distribute their proprietary and patented plants known for extremely high quality and unique diversity. They are carrying Encore® Azalea and the new Sunset Western Garden Collection™ as part of its licensing agreement with Plant Development Services, and they have an agreement with Anthony Tesselaar USA, Inc., to sell their proprietary product lines including their Flower Carpet® Rose lines. In addition, they have a licensing agreement with PlantHaven, Inc. to grow unique plant offerings from selected worldwide breeders.

According to David House, Village Nurseries CEO, Village Nurseries has been busy working to find new and improved plant materials by forming strategic growing alliances with top breeders and growers both in the United States and around the globe.

“Our goal is to continuously offer new and superior plant materials that will make it easier for landscape contractors to create beautiful, enduring landscapes that both they and their customers are proud of,” stated House.
